SWANZEY'S LIBRARIES

A library as defined by Webster's Dictionary is "a room or building given over to a collection of books kept for use and not for sale; also, an institution for managing such a collection." This definition is neither exciting nor very realistic to modern, everday life. Today's library is more than a room or an institution!

A typical citizen in a New England town, where libraries originally started, thinks of a library as part of his heritage from the town. Libraries have always been a part of the town's cultural and educational life. They were early established for the intellectual growth of the citizens of a town and were free for all to use.

The word free gives thought to its meaning. To be free and to have use of something free brings with it a sense of responsibility. The citizens of a town must be willing to accept responsibility of the library. Throughout many years, the citizens of town have voted appropriations for the libraries. Swanzey is fortunate to have two libraries - the Mt. Caesar Union Library and the Stratton Free Library. The two libraries offer to the citizens of the town an opportunity to further their educational and cultural lives. Within the covers of their books is the knowledge of the world - the answers to the questions, what, who, when, and where.

The libraries are a good investment. With the present price of books ranging from $15 to $20 or more per book, any person can realize several hundred dollars a year when borrowing books. Borrowing one book a week will total approximately $900 a year.

The children of the town can richly benefit from the use of the libraries. In addition to the use of the many fine books published for children, the libraries offer story hours, a summer reading program and free films shown for a six-week period in the summer. These films include adult as well as children's features. It's fine family entertainment. Early childhood training is important for a child's future. Investment in a child's cultural and educational training is a guarantee for a successful adult life.

A hundred years have passed since George Carpenter purchased all the shares of the defunct Mt. Caesar Seminary and Academy and gave the building to the Library Association "for literary purposes and for promotion of knowledge and intelligence among the inhabitants."

Every citizen is invited to become a member of the Library Association by application to the librarian. Join us and enjoy the free use of books and materials such as large print books, magazines, records, films, puzzles, filmstrips, and programs for the younger generation.

The Stratton Free Library was also established in 1885 by a native sone of West Swanzey, George W. Stratton. Programs and services are similar in both libraries and are for the use of all the citizens of Swanzey.

Your participation in the use of your libraries is your show of appreciation for your heritage and is a facet of America's freedom. Help to maintain your libraries for your cultural investment in life. May we have another hundred years of intellectual and cultural stimulus.

Respectfully submitted,

Hazel M. Fuller, Chairman
Board of Trustees

MT. CAESAR UNION LIBRARY
LIBRARIAN'S ANNUAL REPORT

HIGHLIGHTS OF A BUSY YEAR!

The Summer Reading Program, theme "Go for the Gold", had 55 member enrolled. Each received a folder, certificate and replica gold medal at the end of the program. Monday night at the movies, with films for adults as well as young people on alternate Mondays, were well attended. Story Hours were held during the summer each Tuesday morning and at other special times during the year. A Book Sale was sponsored by The Friends of the Library on the "Old Homestead" week-end. There was an exhibit at the Cheshire Fair. It was created by Janet Parsons, featured the activities of the Library and won the second premium.

Additional lighting was installed for the book stacks at the rear of the rooms. This was made possible by the annual donations to the Support Fund. The emergency light also was replaced.

The Library lost a staunch friend and supporter with the death of Elsie Navish in June. She was a Library Trustee for many years and served as president and treasurer for several of those years.

Three issues of the Mt. Caesar Memo, Newsletter of the Library was published through the efforts of Paula Page, former trustee, and Mrs. John Egounis.

Some statistics are: 15,600 books, 788 magazines, 155 puzzles, 37 cassett tapes were ccirculated as well as a tape player, filmstrip projector and 16mm film. There were 181 new registrations of individuals using the Library, and 6598 persons camer to the Library. Several people are volunteering their time and effort to work in the Library, and many books and magazines have been donated.

The Library is open 30 hours weekly. The hours are:

Monday and Wednesday: 1:00-5:00 p.m.; 6:30-9:00 p.m.
Tuesday and Thursday: 9:30-11:30 a.m.; 1:00-5:00 p.m.; 6:30-9:00 p.m.

Thursdays 10:00-11:00 p.m., 3:00-5:00 p.m., 6:30-8:30 p.m.

1985 marked the one hundredth anniversary of the Stratton Free Library. For ninety-nine years the people of our community have been taking advantage of the literary resources that were originally given by George Stratton. This year sixty-three new people registered for cards and over six hundred books were added to our collection thanks to a generous donation of books from the State Library. We continued our bi-weekly children's film programs during the summer and added a bi-weekly film program of interest to adults. These were well attended and will continue this year.

Our summer reading program was a Reading Marathon with twenty-six children participating. Seventeen of those children received free books for reading more than fifteen books during the program. Certificates and ribbons were awarded at a sidewalk chalk-drawing party at the end of August.

After many years as a trustee and three years as assistant librarian, Carol Haley resigned in December. We greatly appreciate the time and energy she put forth to the benefit of the library.

Again, we thank Eddie Calkins for displaying so many of his pictures and memoribilia at the libraryl. We also thank Swanzey Girl Scout Troop 462 for planting the flowering bushes in front of the library.

In the Autumn, the librarian participated in the Public Library Techniques course on choosing books for adult readers.

SWANZEY RECREATION COMMITTEE

During the year of 1984, the Pavillion at Swanzey Lake was restored Thru the summer the building was used for different functions. Blanche MacFarlane organized many recreational activities at the lake. She plans on increasing these activities next year. Thanks to Blanche for all her help.

Curbing was done on the black top at Brown Field. This will allow us to make an ice skating rink for this winter. New fencing was put around the newest softball field at Brown Field. A new tractor was purchased for Brown Field. The Brown Field Committee helped in the expense of this. Thanks to them for all the work they do.

The Summer Program ran for 8 weeks at Cutler School this year. Activities included swimming, a trip to miniature golf and a trip to Robin Hood Park to see a puppet show. The children also made puzzles and they were sealed and hung on the walls inside the Pavil lion with their names and ages.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF SEWER COMMISSIONERS

All outstanding sewer hookups are now in service. Due to mechanical and operational changes instituted by the Commission, substantial reductions in electrical usage and labor costs have been able to offset increased electrical rates and chemical costs. As a result, we will apply an approximate $9,500.00 surplus to the reduction of the 1985 budget
